Sat, Dec. 3, 2022 — Noon to 10:00PM
Houston Water Works, 105 Sabine, Houston, TX 77007

Houston's 10th Margarita Festival takes place Sat, Dec. 3, 2022 from Noon - 10 PM at the Houston Water Works, 105 Sabine, Houston, TX 77007. The Festival is a celebration of Houston's #1 mixed beverage, the margarita, and is the largest of its kind in the United States!

Margaritas are not the only great thing about the festival; it also features a "Best Margarita Competition" where Houston's top margarita makers (restaurants, bars & mixologists) compete for bragging rights and prizes, a salsa dance competition with $1,500 in cash prizes, live entertainment, a limbo competition, great food, arts & crafts and more.

Celebrating its 10th anniversary, the Houston Margarita Festival has become one the hottest festivals in the city. Vendors can expect over 10,000 attendees.

Part of the Festival's attraction is that the Festival takes advantage of one of Houston's most unusual venues, The Houston Water Works. Only rediscovered recently, this underground cavern was where Houston originally stored its Downtown water supply.

Fans will also want to attend the:

- 6th Woodlands Margarita Festival, Sat., August, 2022 @ Town Green Park

NOTE: Only adults ages 21 and older are permitted to enter the Festival, including vendors. Children are not permitted inside the Festival.

Vendor space for this Festival does sell-out due to the limited space
Booths are sold on a first-come, first-serve basis.
